

Developing Engineering Human Capital

Key Activities

- Developing the next Generation of Power Engineers
- Expanding Workforce Development to meet the needs of human resources & a highly diversified workforce
- Advancing a new generation of university Power Systems Engineering curriculum
- Providing Professional Training through a short course program
- Stimulating both university and K-12 students to join the movement for the next generation of electric power engineers.